May 14

Sixth Sunday of Easter

John 14:15-21

In today's Gospel reading, we find Jesus telling his disciples that he will ask God, his Father, to send the Holy Spirit to live in and with the disciples forever. He also tells them that very soon they will no longer be able to actually see him, but that they should continue to love him and obey his commandments.

The greatest commandment that Jesus gave his disciples (and us!) is to "love one another as I have loved you." If we could obey this great commandment, we would not break any of the Ten Commandments, because out of love, we would be loving to others in every situation we face. Do you find yourself picking and choosing whom you will love?*

How is God calling you to love in your life?*

Can you remember a time when you really felt God's love?
Share your memory.*

Today's Scriptures are Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; Psalm 66:1-7, 16, 20; 1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21.

*Happy Mothers Day to all our Moms,
From Father Pat and St. Anthony Parish Staff!*

Pray for peace!

*Oregon voter guides and ballots have been mailed for the election. Don't forget to vote and sign the ballot envelope. Drop it at a county drop box by Tuesday, May 16. For ballot or voting help, call the Multnomah County Elections Office at 503-988-3720.

This year our International Pentecost Celebration is on May 28. We will have a noon time potluck meal. We will need help setting up, serving and cleaning up. Pentecost is important for several reasons. First, it is one of the big three celebrations of the Church, right up there with Easter and Christmas. Secondly, Pentecost is an "international" celebration, with people from a variety of cultures present at that first Pentecost. Thirdly, St. Anthony of Padua was canonized on Pentecost, less than a year after he died. Sign-up sheets will be in the Church entrance for the pot-luck.

We want to recognize all the graduates. If you are graduating or have a close relative who is graduating from high school, college, graduate school, etc. please let Bonnie or me know about their institution, major, awards, future plans, etc. so we can print it in the bulletin in May & June.

If you have questions call Glenn at the office on Tuesdays through Thursdays in the afternoon.

The Resurrection in the Catechism of the Catholic Church

652 Christ's Resurrection is the fulfilment of the promises both of the Old Testament and of Jesus himself during his earthly life. The phrase "in accordance with the Scriptures" indicates that Christ's Resurrection fulfilled these predictions.

653 The truth of Jesus' divinity is confirmed by his Resurrection. He had said: "When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am he." [John 8:28] The Resurrection of the crucified one shows that he was truly "I AM", the Son of God and God himself. So St. Paul could declare to the Jews: "What God promised to the fathers, this he has fulfilled to us their children by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you.'" [Acts 13:32-33] Christ's Resurrection is closely linked to the Incarnation of God's Son, and is its fulfilment in accordance with God's eternal plan.

654 The Paschal mystery has two aspects: by his death, Christ liberates us from sin; by his Resurrection, he opens for us the way to a new life. This new life is above all justification that reinstates us in God's grace, "so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life." Justification consists in both victory over the death caused by sin and a new participation in grace. [Eph 2:4-5;] It brings about filial adoption so that men become Christ's brethren, as Jesus himself called his disciples after his Resurrection: "Go and tell my brethren." [Jn 20:17] We are brethren not by nature, but by the gift of grace, because that adoptive filiation gains us a real share in the life of the only Son, which was fully revealed in his Resurrection.
