April 21

Fourth Sunday of Easter

John 10:11-18

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd." Jesus goes on to tell how a good shepherd will lay down his life to protect the sheep. A hired man who is not a shepherd & does not own the sheep will run away & leave the sheep if a wolf attacks the flock. The hired man works for money & will not risk his life for something that does not belong to him. Jesus goes on to say,

"I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep and my sheep know me just like my Father knows me & I know my Father. I will give up my life for my sheep. I have other sheep that are not here but I must gather them & bring them together. They will hear my voice & come. Then there will be one flock, one shepherd."

Today's Scripture: Acts 4:8-12; Ps 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28-29; 1 John 3:1-2; John 10:11-18.

Dr Glenn Byer, who works at OCP and accompanies and cantors at our 10:30 am Sunday Mass, will be giving a talk on Wednesday, May 1 at 7 pm in our Parish Hall on "How to Get More Out of the Mass." Much of what he presents will be reflections of his book, "26 Ordinary Ways to Live the Liturgy."

REGINA COELI

prayed in place of the Angelus during the Easter season

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, Alleluia
 For he whom you did merit to bear, Alleluia
 Has risen as he said, Alleluia
 Pray for us to God, Alleluia
 Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia
 For the Lord is truly Risen, Alleluia
 Let us pray: O God, who by the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has been pleased to fill the world with joy, grant we beseech you, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, his Mother, we may receive the joys of eternal life, through the same Christ our Lord, Amen.

The Resurrection in the Catechism of the Catholic Church
The Resurrection as transcendent event

647 O truly blessed Night, sings the Exsultet of the Easter Vigil, which alone deserved to know the time and the hour when Christ rose from the realm of the dead! But no one was an eyewitness to Christ's Resurrection and no evangelist describes it. No one can say how it came about physically. Still less was its innermost essence, his passing over to another life, perceptible to the senses. Although the Resurrection was an historical event that could be verified by the sign of the empty tomb and by the reality of the apostles' encounters with the risen Christ, still it remains at the very heart of the mystery of faith as something that transcends and surpasses history. This is why the risen Christ does not reveal himself to the world, but to his disciples, "to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people."

II. THE RESURRECTION - A WORK OF THE HOLY TRINITY
 648 Christ's Resurrection is an object of faith in that it is a transcendent intervention of God himself in creation and history. In it the three divine persons act together as one, and manifest their own proper characteristics. The Father's power "raised up" Christ his Son and by doing so perfectly introduced his Son's humanity, including his body, into the Trinity. Jesus is conclusively revealed as "Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his Resurrection from the dead". St. Paul insists on the manifestation of God's power through the working of the Spirit who gave life to Jesus' dead humanity and called it to the glorious state of Lordship.
